Presented by the National Watershed Coalition in Partnership with the Oklahoma Conservation Commission, Oklahoma Association of Conservation Districts and the Oklahoma Natural Resources Conservation Service

Make Plans to Attend Now

We promise excellent speakers and an opportunity for networking and discussion on a wide range of watershed issues.

The conference will be held at the Renaissance Conference Center Hotel in the beautiful Bricktown district of Oklahoma City.

The 12th National Watershed Conference will provide a forum to examine the challenges, issues, innovations, and policies which are critically important to shaping a relevant and viable future for local watershed partners and projects. The conference will examine the concept of management on a watershed basis toward the goal of a positive collective environmental impact within larger landscape scale areas.

Things to do and see in Bricktown: There are a wide variety of restaurants; including Toby Keith's I Love This Bar and Grill. Other attractions include water taxis, Bass Pro, and Harkins Bricktown Cinema 16 Theater. Visit the Bricktown web site for more information: <http://www.welcometobricktown.com>.

Nearby attractions and places of interest include: the Oklahoma City Zoo, Science Museum, Riverwind Casino, Remington Park Racing and Casino, Firelake Casino, OKC Bombing National Memorial and Museum, and the National Cowboy and Western Heritage Museum.
